FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT - SUNDAY OF ORTHODOXY

This Sunday commemorates the return of Icons into the churches, according to the decision of the Seventh Ecumenical Synod (787). The Church determined that this celebration would take place each year on the first Sunday of Lent, as the Sunday of Orthodoxy, starting March 11, 843. On this Sunday every year the triumph of the faith of Orthodoxy is celebrated with ceremony. According to St. John of Damascus the icon of Christ is a reminder of the fact of Christ's Incarnation, which is vitally significant for our salvation. The celebration of the day often includes a reverent procession with the Icon of Christ around the inside of the church and blessing of icons after the Divine Liturgy. The Sunday of Orthodoxy calls us to rededicate ourselves to the deep meaning of our faith and to declare in unison, "One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all".

НИНІ : Тропар Воскресний голос 5 опісля тропар неділі православ'я (г. 2):

Пречистому образу твоєму поклоняємся, благий, просячи прощення прогрішень наших, Христе Боже, бо волею благоволив єси плоттю зійти на хрест, щоб ізбавити тих, що їх сотворив єси, від неволі ворожої. Тому благодарственно кличемо Тобі: Ти радістю сповнив усе, Спасе наш, прийшовши спасти світ.

Слава: і нині:

кондак неділі православ'я (г. 8):

Неописане Слово Отче із тебе, Богородице, воплощенням описалося і, осквернений образ у давнє зобразивши, з божественною добротою з'єднало, та ісповідуючи спасення, ділом і словом ми це являємо.

Наша парафія відповідає на заклик Патріярха! Не забуваймо зложити дар їжі для потребуєчих.
We are responding to the Patriarch's call for "corners of caritas" in every parish: please don't forget to bring your non-perishable food donation!

ВЕЛИКИЙ ПІСТ – GREAT LENT

Great Lent is a time to focus on our prayer; to consciously unite our actions to our prayer. What does the Church teach us about Lenten prayers? There are penitential prayers and prayers for the dead. Let's begin with penitential prayers. The prayer of St. Ephrem is the best example of a Lenten prayer of penance. It focuses on recognizing that Our Lord is the Master of our life. Even though we have free will and even though so often God's presence is not clear to us, in the fullness of time God's truth will conquer—why? Because eternity belongs to God, because love does overcome evil, and there is life after death! Admitting this means that we recognize that we are recipients of God's gracious love, a love which gives us the strength to be better human beings. However, in spite of being the beneficiaries of God's goodness, we fail—we forget the power of the Holy Spirit in our lives—we sin. In penitential prayer, we admit our sin and turn to Christ for forgiveness, for the embrace of the Father's love! We also pray for the dead, because it is through them that we come to meet God and first recognize divine love. Those who have gone before us brought us to faith—teaching us by word and action that God is with us!
